

FAIRBANKS PLANS WHIRLWIND TOUR

Vice-Presidential Nominee
Later Will Cover Path
Toured by Hughes.

MOVE HEADQUARTERS

National Fight Hereafter
Will Be Conducted From Fifth Avenue.

Special to The World.

NEW YORK, Aug. 7.—Charles W. Fairbanks of Indiana, vice-presidential nominee on the Republican ticket, will make a whirlwind campaign tour of the country, similar in scope to that which the Republican national committee is planning for the head of the ticket in September, soon after Mr. Hughes's return from California. Mr. Fairbanks, it was said at Republican national headquarters yesterday, will follow the presidential candidate over practically the same ground later in the campaign.

The campaign committee looks upon Mr. Hughes's trip to the Pacific coast, on which he starts tomorrow, as a preliminary excursion and not an integral part of the more active campaign which will follow in September and October. It is not likely, however, that the nominee will go as far as California again, although many of the western states through which he passes on this trip are expected to be included in the later itinerary.

Fairbanks' Moves Managers. The campaign committee feels much gratified at the decision of the vice-presidential nominee to make a sweeping tour. His attributes as a campaigner are well known. In the campaign of 1904, when Colonel Roosevelt was serving out President McKinley's term and was nominated for president, the burden of the campaign speaking throughout the country fell upon Mr. Fairbanks, then the vice-presidential nominee.

With Mr. Hughes in Bridgeport, preparing the speeches to be made on the western trip, Chairman William R. Wilcox of the Republican national committee moved the headquarters yesterday from the Hotel Astor to the new Guaranty building, 511 Fifth avenue. With the exception of the Hughes alliance and the women's committee of that organization, the Hotel Astor headquarters were entirely cleared last night. Such rooms as will be kept there hereafter will be for the exclusive use of the nominee himself, as soon as the alliance is moved into the new headquarters.

Wilcox in Washington. Chairman Wilcox left at noon for Washington to confer with Republican senators and representatives who have been unable to get to New York to see him. James B. Reynolds, secretary of the Republican national committee, and Ralph D. Cole, who assumed charge yesterday of the Republican speakers' bureau, accompanied Mr. Wilcox. The latter expected to return at midnight, and plans to leave here again tomorrow with Mr. Hughes when he starts on the western trip. Mr. Wilcox will go as far as Chicago with the candidate. Before going to Washington Chairman Wilcox said he would announce the selection of a manager for the Chicago headquarters after he reached that city, probably Sunday.

SPEDDY TRIAL FOR NEGRO MURDERERS

looking under the seats for something. One of you negroes stole my quart of whiskey," he is said to have exclaimed, "and when we get to Morris I'll have both of you arrested."

The negroes grabbed Vaughn and began to cut him to pieces. A dash of the razor nearly severed his head from his shoulders and he was hacked and mutilated in many places. The car was pushed to the side of the road and Vaughn's body placed in the tonneau. Then the negroes ran into the woods and separated.

Cecil Towery was captured later and when a mob tried to take him from the Oklahoma jail he was rescued by officers and brought here for safekeeping. Officers of McIntosh county, where the crime was committed, were advised that the negroes would hold here and Sheriff Orville Thompson of Oklahoma county and Sheriff J. W. McCune of McIntosh county came here yesterday to take them to the Bufala jail.

Walter and John Lowery, brothers of the confessed murderers, live in Tulsa. All of the Lowerys have police records. Walter shot an Oklahoma City policeman in 1913, according to Underhill Carl Lewis, while John has been convicted several times of handling whisky. Will and Cecil have police records here for fighting.

Ira Gibbons Made Defendant in Suit
For $6,790 After Automobile Crash.

Ira Gibbons was yesterday made defendant in a suit for damages totalling $6,790 for injuries received by Charles Gandall, who was run down by an auto belonging to Mr. Gibbons several weeks ago and who sustained a broken leg. Ray Gibbons, son of the defendant, was at the wheel when the accident occurred. Negligence is charged.

Gandall, who is a minor, was riding a motorcycle, and was thrown some distance. Since being taken to the hospital Mr. Gibbons has seen to it that he had the best care and attention.

Fire Is Raging. PARIS, Aug. 7. (1:50 p. m.)—A great fire in a forest near Soissons, Italy, along a front of nearly three miles, is reported in a Havana dispatch from Rome. Two thousand soldiers have been sent to fight the fire, the cause of which is unknown.

FRANCE INSISTS ON A BLACKLIST

Lord Robert Cecil Says
Ally Is Even More Insistent Than Britain.

MUST REMOVE STEEL FROM LABORER'S EYE

WORK BUREAU ASKS FOR FINANCIAL AID

LONDON, Aug. 7.—The British reply to the American note protesting against the blacklist will soon be ready. The delay is due to conferences with France, which is even more insistent on the matter than Britain. In the meantime it was reported from Rome that Italy will soon join the other allies in establishing a blacklist, and Britain published the admiralty's revised list of neutral shipping which is not to be used by British subjects because the vessels are alleged to be, or to have been, used in unneutral service.

"The British reply to the American note will soon be forthcoming," Lord Robert Cecil, parliamentary under-secretary for foreign affairs, told The Tribune today. "The matter is now under consideration between the British and French governments, and the latter upholds the principles involved even more strongly than we."

Object of the Blacklist. Replying to the suggestion that the blacklist more effective than arms as a weapon against Germany, he declared: "The blockade can never be the chief weapon. Germany can only be beaten in the field, but the blockade works together with the arms to that end."

Lord Robert also discussed the German rejection of the British terms for the feeding of people in the territories overrun by German armies. "Although Germany recognizes the principle that it is her business to feed the territory occupied—thought it is remarkable that she does not mention Serbia or Montenegro—she has rejected our proposals absolutely. There the matter ends. But we hope that one passage in the German statement does not mean that they intend to take Belgian food in order to relieve the Poles."

The blacklist of neutral shipping issued today by the trades division of the admiralty represents 152,656 tons of steamers and sailing vessels. The latest list contains, in addition to those published in a previous list, the names of the following ships flying the American flag: Clara Davis, Fannie Palmer and Oakley C. Curtis, all sailing vessels.

Two Ships Taken Off. These American ships have been removed from the blacklist, since their last publication. The steamer Seneca and the sailing ship Edgar W. Murdoch.

Wagner liners which have been captured by the allies and are now in the service of the government while awaiting a decision of their status by a prize court appear on the list without any indication of their nationality, while the other Wagner boats appear as American.

A large number of ships on the list are bracketed under a caption stating that they have temporarily been removed from the blacklist, while under charter to enter allied or innocent neutral interests.

Unlike the statutory blacklist of neutral traders, the shipping blacklist never has officially been made public.

HARTMAN IS REPENTANT NOW.

"If I had Only Taken My Mother's Advice," the Moonshiner Says. FORT SMITH, Ark., Aug. 7.—"If I had only taken the advice of my dear mother when I was a boy, instead of seeking riches by the get-rich-quick route, I would not be here today pleading for mercy at the hands of justice, and that gray-haired mother back in the mountains of North Carolina and my heartbroken 'dad' would not be bowing their heads in shame."

Guy Hartman, moonshiner for years, in the United States jail, said today. Hartman was brought here yesterday from New Mexico, where he was apprehended two weeks ago after spending nearly a year in old Mexico to escape for moonshining frauds practiced here. A forfeited bond of $20,000 at Kansas City is but one of the many chapters in the case.

"Whereas, there already exists in the city of Tulsa an almost complete and voluntary segregation of the races with no effort on the part of any member of the colored race to break over the line;

"Whereas, we believe that the ordinance passed will be found far inadequate to relieve the condition for which it is said to be designed, but that on the other hand the said condition can be best relieved by the enactment of the section of the city affected or by police regulation;

"And, whereas, notwithstanding the purest motives of the legislators, the inevitable effect and import of such a law is to cause a stigma upon the colored race in the eyes of the world; and to sap the spirit of hope and justice before the law from the race itself, thereby materially lowering the efficiency and doubling the difficulty of making good citizens of them;

"Therefore, be it resolved, that we hereby petition the honorable mayor and city commissioners that the said ordinance be not published and put into effect to the end that the colored people of Tulsa and the race at large may be relieved of this great evil and injustice and that the fair name of our people may be saved from this blot of shame and disgrace.

"Be it resolved, second, that a committee of three be appointed by the city council.

"Be it further resolved that a copy of this petition be sent to each of the following papers for publication: The Tulsa Daily Star, the Tulsa Daily World and the Tulsa Daily Democrat."

"Committee: J. H. Roberts, chairman; J. B. Stratford, secretary; Freeman L. Martin.

to an American audience, but this is a time when we are facing facts. We have said frequently that we desired to cultivate the most friendly relations with Latin-America. What have we done? In country after country we have taken out men who have given long periods successfully to the study of diplomacy and have represented the country with credit and had acquired an admirable and important experience. We have taken them out and put in men utterly inexperienced. I say it is inexcusable. Let me tell you this country will never be worthily represented and we will not prosper among the nations if men are appointed merely to satisfy partisan obligations and there is no ideal of continuity of service in our diplomatic intercourse.

"We have had a very serious disregard of the spirit and requirements of our civil service law. In a democratic community the hardest thing in the world is to get a general appreciation of the importance of having fit men attend to the business of the government. They understand it in private business. But between business and public business anything goes."

Slane have been forced to retire under pressure to the region east of Rernanshah, Persia. An attack by the Russians north of Baku, on the Persian front, was put down with heavy losses. The Russians, according to Constantinople and in Turkish Armenia near Bitlis and Mush the Russians have been put to flight and the Turks have taken them from their positions.

The Ottoman forces met with a reverse even more serious than the first one. Driven back 18 miles into the desert, fighting rear guard actions, they suffered heavy casualties and of their total force of 14,000 lost 45 officers and the thousand men made prisoners. They now have been entirely cleared from the Katak-Umalshi basin.

NEGROES PROTEST SEGREGATION LAW

erators, who saw in it a small amount of retaliation for the manner in which the Republican and Democratic of the state, threw down the literacy test last Tuesday.

The meeting Sunday was duly announced and in response several hundred persons gathered in the theater. Dr. R. T. Bridgewater called the meeting to order.

J. B. Stratford, one of the first to speak, reviewed the status of the negro in the city in relation to the literacy test and declared that as a race the negro was unable to get an audience with either the mayor or commissioners.

"There was a time during Democracy when the colored man got in and got what we wanted," he said, "but that time has passed. We have a set of city officials in power now who will not be guided by our wishes. They seem to think that they can get along without the negro. This is impossible, they just don't know it. But they will. Every negro should turn his back on the Republican party and place a blot upon the name of the negro in Tulsa."

Adopted Resolution. While there was indignation aplenty during the meeting, the real indignation meeting came following the speeches by several of the speakers, when a committee was appointed to draft the following resolution, which was filed with the city auditor yesterday and which will be backed up by the committee at the commissioners meeting this morning:

"To the honorable mayor and the commissioners of the city of Tulsa, Oklahoma, greetings:

"We, the colored citizens of Tulsa in mass meeting assembled, beg leave to exercise our constitutional right of peaceable assembly and petition.

"Whereas, your honorable body on August 4, 1915, passed an ordinance in the city of Tulsa an almost complete and voluntary segregation of the races with no effort on the part of any member of the colored race to break over the line;

"Whereas, we believe that the ordinance passed will be found far inadequate to relieve the condition for which it is said to be designed, but that on the other hand the said condition can be best relieved by the enactment of the section of the city affected or by police regulation;

"And, whereas, notwithstanding the purest motives of the legislators, the inevitable effect and import of such a law is to cause a stigma upon the colored race in the eyes of the world; and to sap the spirit of hope and justice before the law from the race itself, thereby materially lowering the efficiency and doubling the difficulty of making good citizens of them;

"Therefore, be it resolved, that we hereby petition the honorable mayor and city commissioners that the said ordinance be not published and put into effect to the end that the colored people of Tulsa and the race at large may be relieved of this great evil and injustice and that the fair name of our people may be saved from this blot of shame and disgrace.

ATLANTA, Ga., Aug. 7.—The Georgia legislature now in session has taken up more than the usual number of "crank" bills this session.

The Georgia bill for "matching for the drinks" (soft drinks, of course, in Georgia), introduced a bill making such practice a misdemeanor. The ban includes shooting "heads or tails," playing "crackaloo" or "match" when drinks are not at stake.

PHYSICIAN TELLS OF NEW DISCOVERY

SHOULD BE OFFERED TO ALL SUFFERING HUMANITY.

"That one of our local druggists is a wide awake business man and always on the lookout for something to satisfy his trade is evidenced in thousands of volunteer letters that are now being published in regards to 'Hay's Specific,' the great system tonic, which he now has the agency for."

In a recent letter Dr. R. H. Bright of Paducah, Ky., says: "I feel that I should say a few words in appreciation of the wonderful tonic and anti-malarial effect of your preparation. I had thought of going to another climate for a cure, but now I see that all I needed was your preparation and so far I have had no return of my old malady, chills and malaria."

This wonderful tonic of native herbs and barks is now being sold by the Rexall store, Roy R. Getman, Prop.—Adv.

HOW TO REDUCE YOUR WEIGHT

A SIMPLE, SAFE, RELIABLE WAY.

People who are overburdened with superfluous fat know only too well the discomfort and ridicule that over-stout people have to bear.

If you are carrying around five or ten pounds of unbecoming fat you are unnecessarily weakening your body, and are carrying a burden which destroys the beauty of your figure.

There is no need of anyone suffering from superfluous fat. If you want to reduce your weight in a simple, safe and reliable way, without starvation diet or tiresome exercise, here is a test worth trying. Spend as much time as you can in the use of it for a week and get from Rexall drug store a box of oil of korein capsules; take one after each meal and before retiring at night.

Weigh yourself once a week so as to know just how fast you are losing weight and do not skip a single dose until you are down to normal.

Oil of korein is absolutely harmless, is pleasant to take, and helps digestion. Even a few capsules taken before retiring will show a noticeable reduction in weight, foot steps become lighter, your work seems easier and a lighter, fresher feeling takes possession of your whole being.

Every person who suffers from superfluous fat should give this treatment a trial.—Adv.

I will never be without a bottle of this wonderful oil in my home; it is a pleasure for me to recommend it to my friends and the public in this manner."

We are constantly receiving testimonials similar to the above from thousands of gratified users of this wonderful oil. It should be in every home. Accept no substitute, for there is nothing like it. Earl Meltride, a driller, who was seriously injured yesterday morning near Stroud, Okla., was brought to a Tulsa hospital last night and is in a serious condition, according to attending physicians. He is suffering from a badly sprained back and internal injuries which may prove fatal.

Details of the manner in which he was hurt are lacking, but it is understood that some heavy timbers dropped on his back while he was working on the Leadeur house of the Gypsy Oil company, 13 miles southeast of Stroud. Although he was in great pain, fellow-workers did not realize that he was hurt internally until a physician arrived and made an examination.

Mr. Meltride is single and is said to have no relatives in this country. His home is temporarily in Stroud, but he is a native of Pennsylvania.
